- JULIEN ALVAREZ

Pastry Chef at Maison Ladurée since 2021, Julien Alvarez embodies a Vision of Pastry that is Refined, Sincere, and Precise. With an Excellent Training and driven by a Passion for the Craft, he creates Desserts where Balance, Clarity, and Emotion converge. Inspired by the Maison's Heritage, he is writing a New Chapter in its History, One of Contemporary Elegance, Perfect Flavors, and Collective Creativity.

Originally from Bergerac, Julien Alvarez grew up between his Father's Restaurant, Local Markets, and his Grandparents' Vineyards: "I was always immersed in the World of Gastronomy. We went to the Market, we tasted, we learned."

From a Very Young Age, this Immersion in the Culinary World was accompanied by a Taste for Challenge, cultivated alongside Monsieur Dieumegard, a Passionate Craftsman and Finalist in the Meilleur Ouvrier de France Competition, who introduced him to the Demands of the Profession.

In 2011, he won the Title of World Pastry Champion with the Spanish Team. After Leading the Pastry Creation at the Peninsula in 2013 and then the Bristol in 2018, he joined Maison Ladurée in 2021 as Head Pastry Chef.

In 2023, he created Eugénie, a Delicacy paying Homage to the Empress, a Figure of Taste and Elegance, Contemporary with the Founding of the Ladurée House. The Crispness of the Shortbread, the Richness of a Praline or Caramel Center, and a Chocolate Coating create a Perfect Balance. Initially launched in France, it quickly won over International Palates.
